He pointed out the large numbers of naval enlistments from the lake regions, the records of the navy department showing that 70 per cent come from the district having Chicago as the center.

BIG PHILIPPINE STORM

IS CENTRAL IN THE SENATE CHAMBER FOR NEARLY THREE HOURS.

LOOKS SERIOUS AT TIMES

Not Since the Discussion Preceding the Spanish War Have Such Scenes Occurred—One Encounter Happens Between Teller and Lodge and Another Between Spooner and Tillman.
Senator Nelson's Bill Passed.

Washington, Jan. 29.—A Philippine storm was central in the senate chamber for nearly three hours, but was devoid of definite results. At times it looked very serious and the spectators who thronged the galleries watched it with breathless interest.

Acrimony in senate debates is not unfrequent, but old senators say it has been years since there has been such a hurricane of bitter vituperation, of personal taunt, of ugly charges and of unmodified criticism as was witnessed during the day. Not since the discussion of the resolutions leading up to the Hispano-American war have any such scenes occurred in the senate.

Even that debate lacked the personal bitterness manifested at times in this one. Irritation was aroused on both sides of the chamber and once or twice personal encounters between senators seemed imminent. Once when Senator Teller taunted the Republican senators by declaring they knew the statements made in a recent dispatch from Manila, in which General Wheaton was represented as criticizing the opponents of the government's policy in the Philippines, were true, a half dozen Republicans were on their feet in an instant. Senator Lodge, at whom the taunt seemed to be aimed particularly, hurriedly crossed from his seat in the center of the Republican side to the main aisle of the senate, and while to the lips, passionately challenged the statement of the Colorado senator and demanded that he withdraw it. Senator Teller so modified the statement that further hostilities at that time were averted.

One of the sharpest colloquies of the session was between Senators Spooner of Wisconsin and Tillman of South Carolina. The race problem, involving the lynching of negroes, was interjected into the controversy and

Much Feeling Was Manifested by both senators. In the course of the colloquy Mr. Spooner declared that if the same rule were to be applied to the colored people in the Philippines as Mr. Tillman referred to in the South, then "God help the colored man in the Philippines."

God help him in the Philippines now," shouted the South Carolina senator passionately. "You have already butchered in three years three times as many as the Spaniards did in three centuries."

"It is one thing," retorted Mr.
Spooner, "to kill men with arms in their hands against the government and against the flag. It is another to burn them."

Senators in their excitement seemed for the moment to have forgotten the subject of debate.

The chair (Mr. Frye) was able with difficulty to maintain order. When the discussion finally was ended for the day the chair felt called on seriously to admonish senators that the rules of the body had not been observed, and after reading the following which had been violated, he expressed the hope that in the future senators would have a care to observe it. Such an admonition has not been made by the presiding officer of the senate in many years.

Prior to the outbreak on the Philippine question the senate concluded the consideration of the bill establishing a department of commerce and passed it. The name of the new department was changed to that of the department of commerce and labor.

MEANS LIFE OR DEATH TO CUBA.

Prominent Islanders Sending Appeals for Tariff Concessions.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The secretary of war continues to receive cable messages from native officials, planters and merchants of Cuba appealing to him to use his best endeavors to secure tariff concessions on Cuban sugar and tobacco. Messages were received during the day from the mayors of the principal cities of Cuba, from the members of the supreme court, from judges of Havana and from leading planters. Chief Justice Cruz Perez of the supreme court of Cuba cabled:

"The members of the supreme court desire to state that the economic condition of Cuba is disastrous. Ruin imminent unless there is a reduction on sugar and tobacco."

The general tenor of all the appeals was that tariff concessions was a question of life or death to Cuba and that failure to make them meant ruin, misery and bankruptcy for the island.
Copies of these messages were sent to the house ways and means committee.

Will Discuss the Race Question.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 29.—The executive board of the general Federation of Women's clubs has requested that a committee be appointed from Georgia and one from Massachusetts to meet Wednesday of next week in New York city to discuss the question of admitting to the federation clubs composed of negro women.

Gives His Yachts to the Navy.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Emperor William has presented his yachts Meteor and Comet to the German navy. The Meteor, which will be renamed Orion, is for the use of naval officers at Kiel, while the Comet is for the use of the officers at Wilhelmshaven.

MORE FILIPINOS COME IN.

Major Lot and Three Officers Surrender to Major Anderson.

Manila, Jan. 29.—Major Lot and three Filipinos, lieutenants, with 19 rifles, 3 revolvers and 24 bolos, surrendered to Major Anderson of the Sixth cavalry at Lipa, province of Batangas.
Lot was brought in sick on a litter.
He was cordially hated at Lipa, where he looted $25,000 worth of jewelry from prominent families. Nickerson's scouts have captured Colonel Lot, a brother of Major Lot, near Batangas.

Lieutenant William K. Larnes of the Sixth cavalry has had a slight engagement with some Filipinos, during which he killed two insurgents and captured a captain and two soldiers.

The general outlook in Batangas province is decidedly favorable. A party of insurgents, led by two renegade Americans, recently entered Alangalang in Leyte province, claiming they were constabulary but not yet uniformed. The impostors were taken to police headquarters and were royally entertained by the native sergeant in charge. At a given signal the renegades and insurgents fell on the police, who, though outnumbered more than two to one, fought desperately and drove off their assailants after a hand to hand fight, in which bolos were the chief weapons. The victory was notable, as the police were completely surprised and so outnumbered.
They lost two men killed and had one man wounded. The insurgents left one man dead.

SPOONER'S SUBSTITUTE

THE WISCONSIN SENATOR INTRO-DUCE AN ISTHMIAN CA-NAL BILL.

PRESIDENT IS TO CHOOSE

First Provision Calls for the Purchase of the Panama Route if the Price and Title Are Satisfactory—If This Fails Authority Is Given to Proceed With the Construction of the Nicaraguan Canal.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Just before the adjournment of the senate Senator Spooner introduced a substitute for the Nicaragua canal bill. The new bill is a practical authorization to the president of the United States to choose between the Panama and the Nicaraguan routes. The first provision looks to the acquisition of the franchises, right of way and other property of the new Panama Canal company of France, including that company's control of the Panama railroad. The president is authorized to pay $40,000,000 for these, "provided a satisfactory title can be obtained." He is then authorized to secure the necessary concessions from the republic of Colombia, these to include the perpetual control of a 10-mile strip of territory from the Caribbean sea to the Pacific ocean. A canal sufficient to accommodate the largest vessels is then to be constructed under the supervision of the secretary of war.

The bill also carries an alternative provision authorizing the president to proceed with the construction of the Nicaraguan canal in case he fails to secure the necessary concessions from Colombia or a satisfactory title from the Panama Canal company.

An immediate appropriation of $10,- 000,000 is made in either event. The limit of cost is fixed at $135,000,000 in case the Panama route is chosen, while $180,000,000 is allowed in case the choice falls on the Nicaraguan route.

CUBAN RECIPROCITY.

Porto Rico's Representative Protests Against a Reduction.

Washington, Jan. 29.—At the session of the ways and means committee Commissioner Degetau, the representative of Porto Rico in Washington, made a brief statement to the effect that Porto Rico opposed the reduction of duty to Cuba as likely to be a menace to Porto Rico sugar exports.
Already Cuba had placed a $12 duty on Porto Rico coffee, thus injuring that trade, so reliance was now placed in a continuance of the sugar trade.

Mr. Mendoza of the Cuban delegation made a rejoinder to Mr. Degetau, expressing surprise that Porto Rico should cast her influence against Cuba after Porto Rico had reaped all the benefits of the war which Cuba conducted.

"We had the fighting," said Mr. Mendoza, "and now they get free sugar to the United States on account of our war."

"We had no fighting to do," responded Mr. Degetau, "because we received the Americans with open arms."

W. L. Churchill of Bay City, Mich., chairman of the beet sugar delegation from that state, declared that the real issue was between the sugar trust and the domestic producers and expressed confidence that congress would not cast its influence on the side of the trust.

TO CUT INDIANS' TIMBER.

Minnesota Delegation in Congress Agrees on a Bill.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The Minnesota delegation has agreed upon a bill which will be introduced in a few days by Representative Morris for amendment of the Nelson law for the disposal of the ceded lands in Red Lake, Cass Lake, Leech Lake and Chippewa reservations.

The members have been exchanging views informally with the bill Morris introduced early in the session as a basis for discussion. Many features of that bill are retained in the one agreed upon. They provide for the cutting of timber under regulations promulgated by the secretary of the interior and for the sale thereof to the highest bidder according to bank scale at not less than $5 per 1,000 feet.

It is further provided that all timber shall be cleared from the various tracts and that when the timber is cut and removed the lands shall be subject to entry under the homestead laws, thus yielding two prices to the Indians—one for the timber and the other for the land at $1.25 per acre.

Eugene Dupont Is Dead.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 29.—Eugene Dupont, president of the powder manufacturing firm of E. I. Dupont, deceased, is dead at his home at Christiana Hundred from pneumonia. Mr. Dupont was 61 years of age.

President Palma's Secretary.

New York, Jan. 29.—General Tomas Estrada Palma, president-elect of Cuba, has appointed as his private secretary Benito Rios, who was an attache of the Cuban junta here at the time of the revolution in Cuba.

ATE TWO DOGS RAW.

Terrible Sufferings of Captain Porter's Marines in Samar.

Manila, Jan. 29.—The condition of David D. Porter's marines, who took part in the expedition into the interior of Samar, is much worse than previously described. They suffered fearful hardships and were without food for several days. The natives who accompanied the marines claimed they were unable to distinguish the edible roots, which the marines did not believe. The anger of the marines against the natives is intense. None of the latter returned with the marines. The marines suffered so acutely from starvation that they ate raw the flesh of two dogs.

When Captain Porter and the first three of his men staggered into camp they were delirious and difficulty was experienced in ascertaining the whereabouts of their companions.

Williams of the First Infantry headed the relief expedition in the face of a torrential rain storm which flooded the rivers. He succeeded in reaching the remaining 10 men, who would otherwise have certainly perished. He found them all delirious. Two of the men were discovered in the branches of trees barking like dogs. Some of the marines are so ill that they are not likely to recover.

General Chaffee has endeavored to obtain full details of the trip, but Captain Porter is not yet able to lucidly explain matters.

SCHLEY AT LOUISVILLE.

The Admiral's Trip From Chicago One Long Ovation.

Louisville, Jan. 29.—Rear Admiral Schley, who under the chaperonage of the board of trade and the Knights Templar, will be Louisville's guest until Friday next, arrived here over the Monon road. He was greeted by an admiral's salute and a shouting crowd of many hundreds at the depot. He was escorted to his carriage by the full committee representing his hosts and driven to the residence of Marion E. Taylor, president of the board of trade.

The trip from Chicago was one long ovation and so vigorous were some of the handclaps which the distinguished sailor received en route that his right hand was nearly "out of business," as the admiral explained.

The admiral made no speeches on the trip, although at some of the stops he spoke a few words of greeting.
Telegrams from every station along the line, many of them stating that the schools had been closed to allow the children to see the admiral, were received. They asked that the admiral appear on the platform if only for a moment.

BUSINESS PARALYZED.

Police, Porto Rico, Has an Epidemic of Counterfeit Silver.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Jan. 29.— Governor Hunt has cabled to the treasury department at Washington asking that an expert be sent here to settle the counterfeit question at Ponce, where $3,000 in bogus silver was recently seized. Business there is practically suspended. The merchants of Ponce are refusing to accept any silver coins of the dates of 1898, 1899, 1900 and 1901. The counterfeit dollars are poorly executed, but the alleged spurious halves and quarters defy detection. They are apparently of the full weight. The bank officers have examined samples of the silver from Ponce and say the coins are good.
There are no experts here or at Ponce.
The chamber of commerce met and resolved to accept all apparently good silver until the arrival of the treasury agents.

FOOD SUPPLY IN WAR TIME.

Gerald W. Balfour Says Britons Need Not Worry About It.

London, Jan. 29.—Gerald W. Balfour, president of the board of trade, in the house of commons rather con-temptuously dismissed an amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne at the opening of parliament, proposed by H. Seton-Karr (Conservative) regarding the old-time question of the food supply in war time, saying that the subject was threadbare and that so long as the United Kingdom retained the command of the seas it was quite sufficient to depend on the ordinary operations of supply and demand. A system of national granaries would necessitate an outlay of £30,000,000. He added that war risks ought not to entail a rise of more than 10 per cent in the price of cereals. The government, Mr.
Balfour said, saw no reason to appoint a committee of inquiry on the subject.

CUT HIS OWN THROAT.

Chief Accountant of Yukon Territory Short in His Accounts.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 29.—A special to The Times from Dawson says: Thomas Middleton, chief accountant for the Yukon territory, has committed suicide by cutting his throat rather than suffer arrest for embezzlement.
A thorough examination of his books showed a shortage approximating $10, 000. When confronted with proof of his default he offered no excuse.
He withdrew for a moment and a second later the officers heard the fall of a body, followed by screams. Middleton had cut his throat from ear to ear.

The Zumbador Was Not Sunk.

La Guira, Venezuela, Jan. 29.—The Venezuelan gunboat Zumbador, previously reported from Willemstad, Curacao, as sunk and captured by Libertador (formerly the Ban Rich) now operating in the interests of the Matos revolution) has arrived here.

Provisions of the Nelson Bill as Passed

Washington, Jan. 29.—Senator Nel-

First-Class Entertainments.

The Brainerd opera house is proving not only a remunerative investment for the owners, and profitable enterprise for the renters, but also gives the people of that city an opportunity to enjoy some first-class entertainments. The cost of the building was something over $20,000, and offices were rented to the city for a considerable sum, and then the opera house portion of the building was leased for $1,200 a year. The total receipts bring the stockholders a fair return. Many first-class shows have come to the town, and the manager of the house is making a large income from his lease. So every one connected with the matter is well pleased, and the people of the city are delighted with the new conditions.—Transcript.

CHINESE BANK IDEA LIKED.

Celebrities in New York say the Institution Would Succeed.

Chinese merchants of New York city are much interested in the news which comes from Vancouver, B. C., that Chinese reformers are about to establish banks in the Chinatown districts of several cities in the United States. The plan was first broached when Huang Yu Wei, the energetic reformer, visited the Pacific coast two years ago. He was forced to leave the country before his plans could be carried out, owing, it is said, to the arrival of several highlanders who were commissioned by the empress dowager to kill him. During the Boxer uprising and the resultant trouble, in which the allies took a part, Huang Yu Wei kept in the background.

The reform party in China is now gaining strength every day, and Huang is said to be in possession of considerable funds. He has always desired to gain some hold over the Chinese in America, many of whom lean toward the reform party, and it is said that he believes the chain of banks will give him much influence. The headquarters of the banking system, according to the accounts which have reached New York, will be at Hongkong. The first bank will be established at Vancouver, where there is a large Chinese population.

There is no regular Chinese banking house in New York, though there are many Chinese with large bank accounts. Most of the business goes to the savings banks in the Bowery. The Chinese who get rich in this country seldom invest in real estate, and the stock market is entirely too involved and uncertain to claim any of their profits. They keep most of their wealth in cash and are content with the interest which the banks pay. The poorer Chinese deposit their savings with the merchants, from whom they receive no interest. They are glad to have their money in a safe place and promptly available in case of need. Considering the number of Chinese who leave their money without any particular security with the merchants of the quarter the number of cases in which there has been an attempt at fraud is very small. The Chinese merchant who would violate a trust of this kind would be driven from the quarter as a punishment for his breach of faith.

A great deal of money is sent to China every month by the merchants and other Chinese residents. This exchange would be the principal source of business for a local Chinese bank. It is now handled almost exclusively by the express companies, which issue drafts on Hongkong. Chinese bankers have established a reputation for honesty throughout this country, and if the prospective New York bank is established on a solid basis the Chinese say it will surely succeed.

The renewal of this lease will start the company out on a term, which when completed, will have run twenty-one years. The first lease taken out was on April 1, 1885. WELL KNOWN CONDUCTOR DEAD

George E. Reeder Who Had a Run between Staples and Duluth Dies From Injuries Received.

It will be sad news to the many friends in railroad circles of George E. Reeder to hear of his death which occurred yesterday morning in a hospital at Duluth.

Mr. Reeder had a freight run between Staples and Duluth and was very well known in this city. He had been working for the company for a long time.

Last Sunday he was quite badly injured at Carleton while trying to uncouple a car and was removed to the hospital. At first it was not thought that the injuries were fatal but this proved to be the case later.

Indian Commissioner Jones says that his circular requiring Indians to refrain from painting their faces and keep their hair cut short, as the white man does, has been misconstrued in many quarters. He also says there is not going to be any trouble, as predicted by J. B. Bottineau in his interview in The Journal.

"The order relates principally to Indian youths who have been educated at the government schools," said the commissioner. "Many of them, upon their return to their reservation return to the native dress and habits. They have been taught better at great expense to the government, and we do not propose to let them return to barbaric ways if we can help it. If they insist upon wearing their hair long and in painting their faces, they will be deprived of what-ever gratuities they would get if they followed the civilized methods. We do not propose to aid in the perpetuation of the old Indian customs and have taken this means of stamping them out so far as possible. Agents will use their best endeavors to have the older Indians adopt the short hair and clean-face methods of the whites. The old men think they cannot properly celebrate their feasts nor indulge in their dance unless they are clothed in blankets and have their hair decorated and their faces streaked with paint. If we can prevent them from doing these things it will have the effect of discontinuing their dances and other barbaric customs. The Indian office does not propose to use force in carrying out this policy, but will use all methods that can be legitimately used to bring about the civilization of the Indian."

SCHOOLS OF CITY ARE OVERCROWDED

Board of Education Has a Serious Problem to Confront Relat- tive to this Matter.

SOME ROOMS ARE OVER TAXED.

One Teacher in the School Said To Have Nearly Fifty Pupils in one Class.

The board of education of the city has a rather serious proposition confronting them at the present time and it would seem that something will have to be done very quickly in order to bring relief.

The schools of the city are overcrowded, and in some instances the teachers are overburdened with a larger number of pupils than they can possibly take care of and bring out good results.

Two informal meetings of the board have been held within the past ten days to consider this matter, and it has been discussed at length although nothing definite as yet has been determined upon. When the addition was built to the Harrison school last summer it was thought that the situation would be overcome, but since the midwinter examinations were taken and many promotions resulted the schools are again taxed to their utmost capacities, one of the teachers in the schools having nearly fifty pupils in one class.

Many remedies have been suggested by the board and one which perhaps will meet with most favor, is to hire some rooms down in the center of the city as a temporary means of relieving the situation. The general impression is that another addition will have to be built to the Washington school building. The board had this matter under advisement at one time but they did not see their way clear at that time to raise the money. An addition which would meet the requirements of the city in this matter will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000.

There is also some talk of fitting up the basement of the Lincoln and Lowell schools but this proposition does not meet with favor.

At the present time three extra teachers will have to be employed to look after the large increase in attendance at the schools. The enrollment far surpasses that of other schools in cities the size of Brainerd in the state.

CRONJE'S FAITHFUL DOG.

Rock General's Canine Friend Petted by Men of Green Point Camp.

General Cronje's dog, the faithful four footed creature that followed the fortunes of his master from the outbreak of the war until he was run to earth at Paardeberg, has thrown in his lot with the British troops. He is, writes a Cape Town correspondent of the London Mail, located at Green Point camp and enjoys life with the best of them. The dog is of the retriever breed, but, unlike his former master, exceptionally long in the legs. On the whole, he is of a surly disposition so far as strangers are concerned and will receive attention from none save a man in uniform. He attends every parade held in the camp, and whenever a company of men are sent away he accompanies them to the railway station, waits until they are entrained and then returns disconsolately to camp.

Church parade on Sunday morning is a fixture he never misses, though when the state of the weather necessitates the holding of the service in the recreation room he remains outside. Should the service be prolonged more than five minutes over the usual time the dog solemnly marches in to inquire the reason. Altogether, the animal is made much of by the men in the camp, but he is not given to making many friends.

William S. K. Wetmore, eldest son of George Peabody Wetmore, United States senator from Rhode Island, has been named as one of the three special secretaries to represent the United States on the special embassy to Great Britain for the coronation of King Edward VII., says a New York dispatch to the Philadelphia Press.

Fourteen years ago his royal highness Albert Edward, prince of Wales, now king of Great Britain and Ireland and emperor of India, issued explicit orders to his equerry, Typhibit Wilson, to remember the name of Wetmore, adding that no Wetmore should ever be presented to court.

Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore, then the most beautiful married woman in Homburg, had curiously declined to meet his royal highness at a dinner. Hence his indignation and his ban against all Wetmores.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MR. WALKER WHITESIDE TONIGHT.

As is well known throughout the city Mr. Walker Whiteside will present his exquisite production of the "Merchant of Venice" at the Brainerd Opera House this evening. Mr. Whiteside returns to Brainerd by special arrangement and theatre goers have expressed themselves as being delighted to once more have the opportunity to greet this eminent young actor. A week ago at the Brainerd Opera House a large and intelligent audience greeted Mr. Whiteside when he presented the "Heart and Sword" and he scored a success. Nearly every person in the house left that night feeling that they would like to hear more of the actor and his splendid company. This opportunity has been afforded them and tonight one of Mr. Whiteside's greatest successes will be seen when he assays the role of "Shylock." This role has made this eminent young actor famous and it will be sure to please all.

The scenery and gowns for this production are all new and elegant and with the assistance of such a strong supporting company as was seen with Mr. Whiteside in this city a week ago the performance tonight will be one of the best yet seen in the new house. Miss Wolstan will play Portia, Mr. William B. Mack, Gratiano, and Mr. Laurence Evert, Bassanio. During Mr. Whiteside's recent engagements in St. Louis, Louisville, Montreal, Minneapolis and St. Paul, he was received royally by the press and large audiences.

"THE CHRISTIAN."

Hall Caine's great masterpiece "The Christian" will be the presentation at the Brainerd Opera House on the evening of February 5. "BARBARA FRIETCHIE."

The fourth act of "Barbara Frietchie," the greatest of all war dramas that is to be presented here at the Brainerd Opera House Feb. 11, by Mr. James Neill and the famous Neill company, shows Barbara and Mammy Lou watching in the sick room over Barbara's wounded Northern lover. It is in the early dawn, with the faint morning light coming through the windows. The two watchers suddenly bend over the wounded man. Barbara becomes terror stricken as Mammy Lou goes to the bed and as the old negress straightens up Barbara reads the truth in her face. "Honey, he's sleeping his last sleep," says Mammy, and, crying pitifully, Barbara throws herself on the bed. At this point the Southern army is heard approaching in the distance to the strains of "Dixie" and the lights go out for a change of scene. The play will be given in this city with the same cast and all the same elaborate scenery that added so greatly to the play's success during its memorable run in San Francisco last summer, as given by the Neill Company.

Verdict Still Stands.

Michael Corrigan's verdict of $7,600 against the Northern Pacific Railway company at Fargo still stands. Corrigan was car repairer and had been employed by the Northern Pacific for a score of years. One night he was called to do some work on a car, which was in the switch yard, and while at work the car was struck by an engine and the wheels pushed over Corrigan's leg, necessitating amputation. The company made a motion to set aside the verdict and asked for a new trial. Judge Amidon took the case under advisement and decided the verdict must stand. It is not known whether the railway company will appeal.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce of St. Paul, at their regular weekly meeting, passed a resolution relative to the matter of forest reserve in the northern part of the state, to be made up of lands now composing the Chippewa reserve.

The resolution recapitulates the various arguments employed in recent discussions before the chamber in favor of the project and recommends that all tracts on the Chippewa reserve that are more valuable for the production of timber than for agriculture be reserved for forestry purposes, and that only the mature pine be cut on the reserve, and that all cutting be done under the supervision of the United States bureau of forestry and in such manner as to avoid as far as possible destruction and waste.

That the shores and islands of the principal lakes within the Chippewa reservation be preserved intact.

That all lands other than those above mentioned, or in other words, all agricultural lands in the Chippewa reservation be thrown open to settlement.

That the value of all timber on said reservation be carried to the credit of the Indians interested, and paid in accordance with the respective treaties.

"Honey, he's sleeping his last sleep," says Mammy, and, crying pitifully, Barbara throws herself on the bed. At this point the Southern army is heard approaching in the distance to the strains of "Dixie" and the lights go out for a change of scene. The play will be given in this city with the same cast and all the same elaborate scenery that added so greatly to the play's success during its memorable run in San Francisco last summer, as given by the Neill Company.

Michael Corrigan's verdict of $7,000 against the Northern Pacific Railway company at Fargo still stands. Corrigan was car repairer and had been employed by the Northern Pacific for a score of years. One night he was called to do some work on a car, which was in the switch yard, and while at work the car was struck by an engine and the wheels pushed over Corrigan's leg, necessitating amputation. The company made a motion to set aside the verdict and asked for a new trial. Judge Amidon took the case under advisement and decided the verdict must stand. It is not known whether the railway company will appeal.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce of St. Paul, at their regular weekly meeting, passed a resolution relative to the matter of forest reserve in the northern part of the state, to be made up of lands now composing the Chippewa reserve.

The resolution recapitulates the various arguments employed in recent discussions before the chamber in favor of the project and recommends that all tracts on the Chippewa reserve that are more valuable for the production of timber than for agriculture be reserved for forestry purposes, and that only the mature pine be cut on the reserve, and that all cutting be done under the supervision of the United States bureau of forestry and in such manner as to avoid as far as possible destruction and waste.

That all lands other than those above mentioned, or in other words, all agricultural lands in the Chippewa reservation be thrown open to settlement.

FATAL TENEMENT FIRE

INHALE FLAMES AND SMOKE

After the Blaze Is Extinguished the Bodies of the Victims Are Found,
but All Attempts to Resuscitate Them Are Unsuccessful—Several Throw Themselves From Windows to Escape a Similar Fate.

Boston, Jan. 29.—Eight persons dead, three more probably fatally burned and three seriously hurt in jumping from windows and others more or less hurt, was the result of a fire just before 2 a. m. in an Italian tenement house on Fleet street, North end. Seven of the dead are adults, three of them women, and the eighth is a child. The building was four stories in height at No. 6 to 10 Fleet street.
The fire was not seen until it was under headway, so that sleeping inmates

two women and one man were seen to throw themselves from windows of the third floor to the street below.

After the firemen had succeeded in
search of the far rooms and found eight bodies. The firemen and police officers labored hard in giving the unfortunates emergency treatment, but their efforts were in vain, for all had inhaled flame and smoke and their bodies in most cases were blistered
countered.

Occupants of a St. Louis Hotel Stamped by a Fire.

St. Louis, Jan. 29.—Two hundred and thirty guests of the Lindell hotel were driven from their apartments into the streets at 10 p. m. by raging flames which wrecked the adjoining
street and Washington avenue and for 20 thrilling minutes threatened to sweep away the hostelry.

Women were carried from the upper floors by elevator and down the stairway in fainting condition. Mothers with infants in their arms groped their way through suffocating smoke, men dragged their trunks after them down the broad stairways of the hotel and clerks in the office hastily procured the valuables of the guests from safes and vaults and carried them to places of greater safety. The structure in which the fire originated was a 7-story brick affair known as the O'Neill building. It was an ancient and inflammable structure. There were a dozen or more firms occupying it, whose losses will approximate

Steamer Queen City Brings Authentic
News of the Disaster.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 29.—The arrival of the steamer Queen City from the west coast of Vancouver Island served only to confirm belief of those who
war Condor was lost on the way from this coast to Honolulu. The Condor
the 3d there was a heavy blow in which the collier Mattewan was lost
and other crafts came to grief. The officers of the Queen City state that Dec. 6 Indians of Ahousett picked up a portion of a boat which was white and had a copper bottom similar to those of boats carried by warships.
It had a brass letter "C" on a black boss and three bow arrows, which signified that it was the property of the admiralty of Britain.

A lighthouse keeper at Cape Beale
also found a chronometer and a gold watch of English pattern and chain.
A nameboard also was picked up bear-

THE DOWAGER'S DEBUT.

Is Now Recognized as the Actual Sovereign of China.

Peking, Jan. 29.—The dowager empress made her formal debut before the foreign ministers here at the diplomatic reception. She occupied the throne in the main audience chamber, while the emperor sat behind a table
on a low dais before the throne.

The fiction of recognizing the emperor as the sovereign was maintained, but the dowager empress was the personage of chief interest and importance.

The policy of recognizing the dowager empress as the actual sovereign has gained ground among the foreign ministers since the return of the court.
The ceremony would have met with objections a month ago. The emperor's incapacity is so clearly demonstrated by all the reports from the palace that all those ministers who formerly advocated that the emperor should exert pressure to retire the dowager empress are now abandoning their former views.

of Sind and in the Bombay Deccan.

Court at Charleston, Ills.

Mattock, Ills., Jan. 29.—An aged couple estranged for years were reunited in the circuit court at Charleston. Spectators and lawyers applauded and the presiding judge waved his
is a wealthy retired business man.
Fourteen years ago he married Mrs.
Lang, a widow with three children.
The couple disagreed over the method of rearing the children and parted.
Mrs. Latta received $500 and the household furniture for waiving all claims on her husband's estate. Re-
had given them while sewing to make a living. Her children were married and she was alone. In despair she sued for separate maintenance. The case was heard by Judge Van Sellar.
While Latta was on the witness stand his lawyer asked him if he would live with his wife again. He answered
"Yes." Turning to the wife the lawyer asked the same question. She too said "Yes," and the estranged couple were soon in each other's arms. The suit was dismissed and the happy pair drove home together.

Inquiry Findings.

New York, Jan. 29.—The Herald's
Washington correspondent says:
Rear Admiral W. S. Schley's appeal to the president will be disposed of adversely to the appellant.

There is no longer any doubt that President Roosevelt will uphold the findings of the court of inquiry which investigated the conduct of Schley during the war with Spain.

Those who profess special knowledge of the president's views say that he will pass upon the question of command, and that while Schley will receive the commendation due to an officer who participated in the battle, credit for the victory will be awarded

Michigan Central Train Collides With
a Carriage.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Three people were instantly killed and four seriously injured by a Michigan Central train at a crossing at West Hammond, Ind. The
Bojek and Joseph Swisgack.

The party were in a closed carriage returning from a funeral at Mount Carmel cemetery. Six persons were inside and one on the seat with the driver. The locomotive struck the carriage in the side with great force, demolishing it and throwing the occupants in all directions. The injured were taken to West Hammond hospital. The driver escaped injury.

THOUSANDS FOR A GAME

Court.

COUBANS TO INTRODUCE THE SPORT

Havana Syndicate Buys Property
For $500,000 and Will Build a Costly Structure For Game, Which Resembles Handball—Professionals
Will Be Brought From Havana.

Pelota is to be introduced in New York city. Pelota is not an oriental dancer or something good to eat, but a game widely known among Spanish speaking races and with which the people of Havana in particular are at present very much fascinated, says the New York Times. Those who do not like the word "pelota" can call the game "jai-alai," although correct usage is said to favor the former.

is to be in an immense building to be erected on the block front on Central Park West between Sixty-second and Sixty-third streets. It turns out that the purchasers of this property, a plot of seventeen lots, sold recently by Justice P. Henry Dugro and Frank Work, are a syndicate of Havana sportsmen and capitalists, several of whom are now actively engaged in the promotion of the game in the latter city. The president of the company or syndicate is R. Galbis, and its New York representative is J. A. Del Solar, who is connected with H. Schelleffin & Co.

The game of pelota as described by Mr. Del Solar seems to correspond in many respects to handball. It is played by four, six or eight players with a very lively ball. The scene of the contest is between two high walls, separated from each other by perhaps a hundred feet. Back and forth between these walls the ball is driven by the players, their hands being protected by stiff gloves, having a sort of extension beyond the finger tips which gives a greater propelling force. It is said that the game is very exciting and that the matches played in Havana are the occasions of heavy betting.
Both agility and strength are required in the sport, and the American officers
an athletic exercise for the soldiers.

To introduce the game professionals will be brought to New York from Havana, although its popularity will prob-
teams.

The proposed building on Central Park West will be simply a large covered arena, although the front facing Central park will be designed as a five story structure, with a cafe on the ground floor and a rathskeller below.
rounded by seats accommodating 6,000 persons, will, it is believed, be the

Plans for the new structure are now being prepared, and work upon it will be begun early this spring. It is un-
site was something over $500,000, while the entire enterprise will call for an investment of about $800,000.

NEWS IS DISAPPOINTING.

Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka Have Not Yet Been Released.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The state department has received a dispatch from the United States representative in Turkey regarding the case of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary held by brigands and her companion, Mme. Tsilka. Its contents were disappointing, the captives not having been released, as was hoped would be the case from the manner in which the negotiations looking to that end had
averse to discussing the case freely, but it is understood the hesitation of
the brigands in bringing the matter to a prompt conclusion is due to their distrust of the attitude assumed by the Turkish authorities. The ransom money demanded has not yet been paid. The state department will continue to exert every effort to secure the release of the women, but im-

End War in South Africa.

London, Jan. 29.—An announcement by Mr. Balfour in the house of commons that a communication had been
offering in the most friendly terms to assist in bringing about peace in South Africa has caused a sensation in the lobbies of parliament. Lord Rosebery is generally credited with having brought about this movement on the part of the Dutch government.

Referring to the matter editorially
The Daily News draws the inference that the government has already replied and has rejected the Dutch over-
impression in the lobbies as a result of the announcement of the government leader and semi-official statements in government journals declare

for Their Increase.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Senator Hoar, from the committee on judiciary, has
bill increasing the salaries of federal judges, but with the provision increasing salaries of senators and representatives eliminated. The bill fixes the salary of the chief justice of the United States supreme court at $13,000 and of the associate justices of that court at $12,500; of circuit judges at $7,500 and of district judges at $6,250.
The salary of the chief justice of the

Kentucky Editor Urges Philanthropist to Divert Some of His Millions From Books to Aid Project in Be-

The Louisville Courier-Journal recently printed an editorial written by
Man, Greeting," in which Mr. Watterson touches upon the proposed home for aged newspaper men and of Mr.
Andrew Carnegie's connection therewith. Mr. Watterson says:

Puck has a cartoon which Mr. Andrew Carnegie should seriously consider, and by way of helping him along to a consideration on tangible lines, The Courier-Journal ventures to supplement the pencil of its hebdomadal coworker in the search for truth with a written word or two of still further suggestion.

Puck's cartoon depicts the world famous philanthropist seated at a table—presumably in the new home he has but just completed—inspecting plans
ground of an open fireplace and above the rising flames, appears the vision of a model library, a niche, as it were,
from the facade of the Congressional
over a bas-relief of the Goddess of Plenty may be seen a heroic picture of the good Samaritan, and away off
to his right, standing upon the threshold of an open door, through which the snow flies, an old man and an old woman—weak and wan and wretched—ill clad—nay, but thinly enveloped by unmanly and unwomanly rags—the old wife clinging to a crutch—await in tragic, mute appeal.

sleeve to divert his attention from the maps to the mortals and is saying, as Mr. Carnegie seems to listen, not inapty: "Books are already so cheap and libraries so abundant that even the poorest man has all the literature he wants. Now, why not provide respectable homes for the people who are too old to work and who were never able to save anything from their scanty wages, and to keep them from beggary, starvation or suicide?" May Mr.
Carnegie see and heed the admonition. But whether he does or not, God bless the boy that nursed the conceit

Mr. Watterson, then addressing Mr.
Carnegie in the second person, says:

If you are surprised by the reading of these lines, be assured that those in
be yet more surprised, for they are a sturdy, devil may care set, proud as Lucifer and may perchance at first blush be disposed to resent them. We
the day and night whose life from the cradle to the grave is one long epic— one great, heroic struggle—with destiny; that destiny whose mainspring is glory; that destiny which, begun in the love of letters and adventure, is to end only in victory or the poorhouse;
that destiny which, for all its pitfalls
of one sort or another, of drink too often, of the perils of the town in every shape, has vouchsafed some of them a glimpse of the nobility of truth for truth's sake, along with a little fleeting taste of fame, for many of them the sublime, all satisfying emotion of duty bravely done, for all of them the travail of the subaltern; that destiny which, unlike the service of the army and the navy, carries little promotion and no pension; in a word, the
singers of the press, who, beginning at fifteen, to be no longer efficient at fifty, unless along the route they have secured some safe retreat.

This, then, Mr. Carnegie, is our speech to you. Divert some of those millions from books to men. Already a plot of ground has been purchased within easy reach of New York and Philadelphia and some progress made toward the raising of a fund to establish a home for disabled and superannuated newspaper men. There ought to be one of them for every geographical subdivision of the Union.

You, Mr. Carnegie, can make this possible. And you owe something to the press, do you not?

God bless you, Andrew Carnegie, but
you are here to enjoy the blessing and to see the good of it, do this thing.
Make it the signal, the signet, of your own house warming. Don't send us a check; come yourself. This is no child work, and, having given us the bread for God's sake, put some butter on it for Christ's sake!

And the wrong be made right.
And Bertram's right and Bertram's might

Des Moines, Jan. 29.—The recent cold weather and the scarcity of corn has occasioned some alarm among stockmen as to the possibility of a corn famine. Already feeders are complaining that they are unable to secure sufficient for immediate purposes. Hay is also difficult to obtain even at prevailing market prices.

An epidemic of the bubonic plague has broken out among the natives of the Fiji group.

The British admiralty has about given up hope for the safety of the British warship Condor.

Them Are Useless—Several Throw

end. Seven of the dead are adults, three of them women, and the eight is
The fire was not seen until it was un-

the third floor to the street below.
countered.

ped by a Fire.

St. Louis, Jan. 29.—Two hundred
sweep away the hostelry.

were a dozen or more firms occupying

signified that it was the property of the admiralty of Britain.

watch of English pattern and chain.

Is Now Recognized as the Actual Sovereign of China.

throne in the main audience chamber,
on a low dais before the throne.
peror as the sovereign was maintained,
tance.

The policy of recognizing the dowager empress as the actual sovereign
their former views.

dia, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, telegraphed that the drouth is drying the autumn crops are fair in the province of Sind and in the Bombay Decan.

Court at Charleston, Ill.

Mattock, Ill., Jan. 29.—An aged
united in the circuit court at Charleston. Spectators and lawyers applauded and the presiding judge waved his
is a wealthy retired business man.
Fourteen years ago he married Mrs.
Lang, a widow with three children.
of rearing the children and parted.
Mrs. Latta received $500, and the
case was heard by Judge Van Sellar.
"Yes." Turning to the wife the lawyer asked the same question. She responded "Yes," and the estranged couple
drove home together.

Washington correspondent says:
to the president will be disposed of ad-
ing the war with Spain.

a Carriage.

Bojek and Joseph Swisak.

carriage in the side with great force, demolishing it and throwing the occupants in all directions. The injured were taken to West Hammond hospital. The driver escaped injury.

OUBANS TO INTRODUCE THE SPORT

Will Be Brought From Havana.

is said to favor the former.

Park West between Sixty-second and
of seventeen lots, sold recently by Justice P. Henry Dugro and Frank Work,
is R. Galbis, and its New York repre-
nected with H. Schieffelin & Co.

Mr. Del Solar seems to correspond in
an athletic exercise for the soldiers.

teams.

ground floor and a rathskeller below.
investment of about $900,000.

Miss Stone and Mme. Taika Have Not Yet Been Released.

partment has received a dispatch from
the United States representative in Turkey regarding the case of Miss
ion, Mme. Taika. Its contents were

London, Jan. 29.—An announcement
by Mr. Balfour in the house of com-
part of the Dutch government.

ment leader and semi-official state-

for Their Increase.

judges, but with the provision increas-
States supreme court at $13,000 and of the associate justices of that
$7,500 and of district judges at $6,250.
The salary of the chief justice of the

for aged newspaper men and of Mr.
Andrew Carnegie's connection therewith. Mr. Watterson says:

Puck has a cartoon which Mr. An-
ther suggestion.

presumably in the new home he has
tragic, mute appeal.

Mr. Carnegie seems to listen, not inappropriately: "Books are already so cheap and libraries so abundant that even the
gary, starvation or suicide?" May Mr.
Carnegie see and heed the admoni-

Mr. Watterson, then addressing Mr.
Carnegie in the second person, says:
If you are surprised by the reading
cradle to the grave is one long epic—one great, heroic struggle—with des-
end only in victory or the poorhouse;
fifteen, to be no longer efficient at fifty,
cured some safe retreat.

sion of the Union.

vailing market prices.
